

Haroun Ali Suleiman (born 24 July 1953) is a Zanzibari politician who served as the member of the Tanzanian Parliament from 2005 to 2010

He is a graduate in Education of Bristol University (U

K

)

He was appointed Minister of Education , Culture and Sports in 2000 after being elected Member of House of Representatives , Revolutionary Governme

He has also served in various capacities : Principal Secretary (1996 - 2000) ; Deputy Director Planning (1993 - 5)

He was teacher and Education Planner for 22 years

He is keen in gender issues and straightening Basic Education

As Minister of Education and Vocational Training for Zanzibar he established first ever University in Zanzibar , State University of Zanzibar (SUZA)

He also successfully managed to do the following ; New Education Policy (2006) Establishment of Vocational training Centers Establishment of alternat

Mr Haroun Suleiman is a former Minister of Education in Tanzania (Zanzibar) from 2001 up to 2010

As Minister of Education for Zanzibar he worked closely with the SACMEQ National Research Co-ordinators in Zanzibar , and he was appointed as pres

He used evidence from the SACMEQ I and SACMEQ II research results for Zanzibar to lead his Ministry in developing programmes that were aimed at a

As a result , Zanzibar registered one of the highest levels of improvement in pupil achievement results among SACMEQ school systems between 2000 a

Hon

Suleiman attended all SACMEQ Assembly of Ministers meetings and SACMEQ Managing Committee meetings

He hosted the SACMEQ Managing Committee meeting that was held in Zanzibar in 2005

He presided over the SACMEQ Assembly of Ministers in 2009 , and made major contributions to SACMEQ research programmes as the longest serving